

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE August 16, 2005
CONTACT: Jared Cordes

(202) 225-5235

"And Now for the Bad News"

By Congressman Allen Boyd (D-FL)

Thomas Jefferson once said, "Never put off till tomorrow what you can do today." However, many gover

As a man who worries as much about our future as I do about our present, I'm appalled that these projec

According to the CBO report, the government will accumulate enough revenues to pay for approximately

As we learn of the bleak, long term forecast of our nation's fiscal house, I think most Americans would b

The Blue Dog plan not only requires Congress to balance the budget, but also proposes that any new sp

Ultimately, the consequences of our government's fiscal irresponsibility are heaped onto the backs of the

Restoring fiscal sanity to our deficit-ridden federal government is a daunting task that requires difficult ch

